Dear Colleague,

I have just read your 1923 rectorate's speech in the "Hilfe". Without delay, I would like to tell you without much I agree with the views expressed in it. It has long been clear to me that there is only one way out of the current difficult situation: the formation of the United States of Europe. Of course, I hardly believe that this goal can be achieved in near future. However, there are few other options to salvage European culture. May your speech help spread your sentiments, above all in academic circles.

Sincerely yours,
Richard Meyer
