

Postcard from Georg Bredig to Max Bredig, March 7, 1933

Bredig, Georg. "Postcard from Georg Bredig to Max Bredig, March 7, 1933," March 7, 1933. Papers of Georg and Max Bredig, Box 7, Folder 10. Science History Institute. Philadelphia. <https://digital.sciencehistory.org/works/codvwwyn>.

Courtesy of the Science History Institute, prepared July 15, 2025 13:56 UTC

Translated by Jocelyn R. McDaniel

English Translation

Image 1

[left margin]

Prof. Dr. G. Bredig.
Karlsruhe in Baden
Bahnhofstr. 14

Hopefully you and Marianne are doing well and you will continue to write regularly. I will take turns writing to Aunt Ida, so you don't need to worry if you can't write for a day. Everything is fine here. In any case, please pass our news on to Marianne (at least by telephone). Warm regards, Father

[right margin]

Postcard [stamps]

Dr. M.A. Bredig
Charlottenburg 4
Pestalozzistr. 49

c/o Neumann

Image 2

Karlsruhe in Baden, 7 March 1933 (afternoon)

Dear Max,

I'm just sharing the brief news today that Mother is still doing well. She can eat something (semolina pudding) and no longer has a fever. She was delighted to receive letters from both of you this morning, which she always awaits eagerly. Of course, she still finds it difficult to rest, but you have to be patient. The doctors say she is doing well and have promised a good road ahead to recovery.