Karlsruhe, 8 September 1936

Dear Max,

Please look after Aunt Kathe. She has returned from Charlottenburg in an unwell state and is apparently all alone. Her daughter won't return until September 12th. Marianne, whose absence she knew of, is still visiting me. Aunt Kathe is staying at the Pension Schwalbe at 55 Mommsentr.

You have probably received my letter.

Greetings to you and Aunt Kathe,
Father and Marianne
